

A sound of angels

Christopher Tye (c.1500-1573)

Con moto

A sound of an - gels from a - far Fills all the qui - et air, And Ah! how full of A sound of an - gels from a - far Fills all the qui - et air, And Ah! how full of
A sound of an - gels from a - far Fills all the qui - et air, And Ah! how full of A sound of an - gels from a - far Fills all the qui - et air, And Ah! how full of

Con moto

for practice only glad - ness are The ti - dings that they bear. The shep - herds run to Christ is born, our glad - ness are The ti - dings that they bear. The shep - herds run to Christ is born, our glad - ness are The ti - dings that they bear. The shep - herds run to Christ is born, our glad - ness are The ti - dings that they bear. The shep - herds run to Christ is born, our

Beth - lem town To see a won-drous sight. The Lord of Lords, the Lord of heav'n - ly king, Sal - va-tion now is nigh, So all man-kind, so all man-

Beth - lem town To see a won-drous sight. The Lord of Lords, heav'n - ly king, Sal - va-tion now is nigh, So all man - kind,

Beth - lem town To see a won-drous sight. The Lord of Lords, the Lord of heav'n - ly king, Sal - va-tion now is nigh, So all man - kind, so all man-kind with Beth - lem town To see a won-drous sight. The Lord of Lords, the heav'n - ly king, Sal - va-tion now is nigh, So all man - kind, so Lords to earth come down Is born for men to - night. Yea, high.

-kind with an - gels sing Glo - ry to God on the Lord all of Lords to earth come down Is born to - night. Yea, high. so all man - kind with an - gels sing to God on earth come down to earth come down Is born for men to - night. Yea, high.

an - gels sing with an - gels sing Glo - ry to God on Lord all of Lords to earth come down Is born for men to - night. Yea, high.

all man-kind with an - gels sing Glo - ry to God on